SUPPOSED MURDERED MAN ALIVE

DR. BURNS WHO DISAPPEARED AT HENNEPIN WIRES OF HIS WHEREABOUTS.

Oklahoma City, Dec. 26.—Dr. R. L. Burns of Hennepin, Okla., who was supposed to have been murdered at his home, has been located by the authorities of Garvin county in Seligman, Mo., through the interception of a telegram to his brother, C. S. Burns at Davis, Okla.

"See from the press reports that I am believed dead. Am on visit," was the contents of the telegram.

Another telegram received by the brother, was from Burns' father in Harrison, Ark., stating that Dr. Burns and his wife were expected there Monday night to visit him.

The authorities are now at a loss to understand the source of the blood and bits of flesh which were found in his home, and the open window, which was the source of the suspicion that he had been murdered and his body hauled away by unknown persons. The county was much wrought up over the disappearance of the physician and posses were formed to follow the trail of a wagon which it appeared had been used by the supposed murderers in hauling the body away.

Officers are now endeavoring to unravel the mysterious facts which are connected with his disappearance. He was recently indicted on a charge of assault to kill and his case is scheduled for hearing in the district court in January. The assault is declared to have resulted from alleged relations which he was supposed to have with a neighbor's wife. He is insured for $13,000 and December 1 made his will.

His bondsmen are Jack Wilburn and Will Landrum.

Chief Gets Six.

Chief Hounshell and Special Officer Branch took a quiet walk last night and rounded up six persons of different colors and sexes who were not conducting themselves with absolute propriety, and the city is several dollars to the good to day as a result of the contributions they made to the treasury.

Those Pretty Toes.

A bachelor was riding in a Pullman sleeper. The opposite berth was occupied by a pretty little woman and her 2-year-old boy. Early in the morning mother and child were laughing and playing together, and the good-natured bachelor, smiling serenely as he arose to dress, felt that he would like to join in their fun. Suddenly a little foot peeped out from between the curtains of the opposite berth, and, with a merry twinkle in his eye, the bachelor grabbed the plump toes and began:

"This little pig went to market. This little—"

"That's is my foot, sir," said the indignant woman.

The bachelor hastily grabbed up all his belongings and completed his trip in the seclusion of the smoking compartment of the car.—Exchange.

LETTERS FROM JUVENILES TO JUDGE BARTON

The News has had occasion more than once to commend the good work being done by Judge Barton in handling juvenile cases that have come before him. Not long ago he released several boys on probation, requiring them to write to him every two weeks telling him how they were getting along. A day or two ago, he received the letters from two of these boys that show they have the real manly spirit and that they bid fair to improve as they grow older, instead of sinking into the criminal class. The first of these letters reads as follows:

"Mister Judge Barton:
"I will write you a few lines to let you know what I have been doing. I have been going to school and I have been going to Sunday school, but our school is closed for two weeks. Well Mister Judge Barton I am very much proud for what you have done for me. Well Mister Judge Barton I have rote you all that I know and I will close for this time."

The other runs thus:
"Mr. C. O. Barton, Dear Sir:
Will try and write you another letter. This leaves me well and I hope will find you the same. Well I went to Sunday school twice since I have written you. Well school has not started at — yet and when it does I will go as long as I can after we move. Well wishing you a merry Xmas I remain, Yours,"

Two Accidentally Wounded.

Roff, Ok., Dec. 26.—Charlie Sink, a small boy, was playing with a six-shooter when it went off, striking Mrs. Lula Willmuth in the arm and inflicting a painful flesh wound. The bullet also struck Earnest Willmuth, her stepson, aged about 15 years, under the left arm.

A. M. Croxton went to Shawnee yesterday afternoon to attend a meeting of the trustees of the Baptist university. He says that work on the main building is well under way and that it is planned to make his school one of the foremost of the state.

Operation on Brown McKay.

This morning an operation was performed on the leg of Brown, the six-year-old son of Geo. McKay of Stonewall. Some time ago the little fellow fell from the porch of their home and hurt the limb very badly. Since then he has suffered a great deal from it. This morning the place was opened and a formation taken off that had accumulated next to the bone.

THE CHRISTMAS TREE AT THE CITY HALL

The best attended Christmas tree of the season was the one at the city hall last evening. A short program was rendered, consisting of a song by Floyd Haynes, Lankford Shaw and Aurelius Stubblefield, recitations by Edith Constant, Annie Louise Shaw, a prayer by Rev. J. D. White and an address by Rev. Leroy M. Anderson. After this Prof. Briles stated that old Santa Claus would likely be on hand in a few minutes, and sure enough the jolly old saint came out on the stage while he was talking, and after a few remarks to the children, ordered the presents on the tree distributed. This was done in short order. Also there were nine sacks of flour and other provisions to be distributed to those who might need such things. The children were very much delighted with their presents from old Santa and went home feeling that they had not been forgotten.

It is hard to tell which class got the most real enjoyment out of the tree, the ones who received the gifts or those who had made it possible. We consider that special credit should be given to the ladies who spent the afternoon preparing the tree, as well as the committee who had to provide the means. The News hopes to see this tree made an annual affair.

Marriage License Record.

Cupid has been as busy as Santa Claus lately. Friday was probably the record breaking day in the county judge's office, no fewer than seven marriage licenses having been issued on that date. The total number issued since statehood now totals 938. We had figured that it would go to 1,000 by the new year, but it now looks as if it will require another month. Since our last report the following have been issued:

Homer Neal, Bebee, 23; Mary Waldby, Bebee, 18.

W. L. Williams, Conway, 36; Ludie Williams, Lula, 18.

Jack Blevins, Roff, 25; Virgie Jackson, Roff, 16.

C. E. Wood, Jesse, 21; Lula Hamersley, Burrow, 21.

Dannie Lunsford, Hart, 22; Nellie Stephenson, Fitzhugh, 20.

A. L. Rose, Bebee, 22; Pearl Adams, Bebee, 20.

Marion Roseberry, Fort Smith, Ark., 25; Temple Johnson, Francis, 17.

KNIFE INFLECTS SERIOUS WOUND

JIM PHARES STABBED AT ROFF
BY ROSCOE BERRY.

Saturday afternoon a difficulty occurred at Roff between Roscoe Berry and Jim Phares, the last named a Fitzhugh boy, as a result of which Phares is suffering from a serious knife wound near the shoulder. W. R. Phares, father of the wounded boy, was in town today and stated that the trouble arose over the attempt of Berry to borrow some money from Phares, who was just getting ready to leave for his home at Fitzhugh. Phares said he needed his money whereupon Berry abused him for his display of meanness and finally when he displayed a knife in a threatening manner Phares stooped to pick up a rock with which to defend himself. While stooped over Berry struck him, the knife penetrating to the hollow and inflicting a wound that may prove serious. Berry was released on $500 bond.

WALL STREET SUPERSTITION.

Men Who Engineer Huge Deals Believe in Signs.

Professional stock-traders have been reading the signs wrong. Almost all the speculators are superstitious fellows, who believe in charms and amulets. In their pockets they carry lucky coins, a rabbit's foot, a horse chestnut, or something of the kind. One Wall Street man, much envied by his companions, has a short piece of a hangman's rope to conjure with. Many of the customers in the officers are even more credulous than the professional traders in their belief in signs and omens.

There is a deep-seated tradition that Tuesday is "low day" in a "bull market," and "high day" in a "bear market." Some persons speculate on systems, and others employ charts. Once they exploited a machine in Wall Street known as a "market register." It was about as effective in helping anybody to win at stock-exchange speculation as it is to rub up against a hunchback for luck just before you bet on a horse-race.—Munsey's Magazine.

PEACE OFFICERS.

Perhaps no other man has more ups and downs or has a harder life than the peace officer who tries to do his duty fearlessly and conscientiously. Of course the toughs hate him, and the violator of the law who is able to wear high collars and diamonds, thinks he should be permitted to go along like a privileged character, and resents it when the officer sees nothing in him different from other criminals. Then, too, when the officer makes an arrest the sympathy of the crowd is usually with the arrested man. His protestations of injured innocence, the straightforward tales of his witnesses all combine to make the general public, even those who favor a rigid enforcement of the law, think that perhaps, after all, in that particular case the officer may have acted a little hastily. The officer gets little credit and little sympathy for the days and nights he may have lost in spotting this very transgressor. Even those who in their hearts feel that he is right in the matter will not come forward amid the clamor and say so. On the other hand, if the officer fails to enforce the law he is crossed again, so which ever way he turns his lot is not an enviable one.
Another mistake people often make is to threaten their small children with the police if they do not behave. Instead of teaching them that the policeman is the friend of law and order, they impress their young minds with the notion that he is an enemy whom it is best to shun and hate.

WOMAN'S REWARD.

The Palestine Visitor says that "no man will cheerfully and industriously work unless he knows he will be paid for his labor." That is quite true. Women are the only folks in the world who will work "cheerfully and industriously" without pay, and men, who wouldn't do it themselves, do not mind asking them, either.— Timpson Times.

A center shot. The average housewife works for less pay than the average servant girl, if by pay is meant cash. Usually the house girl who receives four or five dollars a week has more spending money than her mistress. Of course the latter has better credit, ordinarily; but to use the credit means, as the housewife well knows, bills at the end of the month and grumblings from the head of the house. The result is that ten years of domesticity breeds in woman a resignation to things as they are. And the way they are is rarely the way the woman imagined they would be in the heyday of her bridehood. Alas, this world is but a vale of tears—and most of the people are crying for things they can't have. Come to Texas.—Dallas News.

AGAINST COUNTY DIVISION.

The commercial club of Anadarko has taken up the matter of having the present law regarding the creation of new counties repealed. The News is in hearty accord with the suggestion. The present law means a constant agitation by towns ambitious to become county seats. In different parts of the state there has been much troubles over this matter, and the trouble has really only just begun. The present law is a standing invitation to towns to stir up trouble and keep the people in a turmoil. There has been too much agitation in the state for the good of business already, and the less we have in the future, the better it will be for everybody concerned.

The papers are running their usual assortment of jokes about the wife buying her husband a Christmas present and charging it to his account, or else getting him money with which to buy it. Some how we don't take much stock in that line of humor.
The marriage vow made them partners in everything, joy, sorrow and money. What the husband has is as much him wife's as his own and the present he buys for her is bought with her money as much as the one she buys for him is his money. One thing we have noticed, however, is that many men never hand over a cent to their wives without growling about it, just as though he were giving unwillingly to some charity.

A year or two ago some pessimistic editor declared that the aero-plane could never be much of a success because none had ever risen over 100 feet in the air. Since then, however the bird-men have been climbing higher and higher until yesterday at Los Angeles Aviator Hoxsey beat the record by ascending to the altitude of 11,474 feet, or two miles.
It occurs to us that was some flying.

Perhaps after all it is better to make a New Year's resolution and then fall down on it than to make none at all. The effort is to correct some fault is worth while.

December 22 is the shortest day of the year. About the same time the bank accounts of most people are likewise shortest.

A nest of wasps may not be much to look at, but when aroused the little insects can make their presence felt. The same thing may be said of the country newspapers. When they unite on a proposition they usually get it. It is because of their standing among this class of papers that Roosevelt and Bryan have retained their popularity so long. When country papers say anything the people know it is the editor's opinion, but when a city paper, owned by some corporation expresses itself no one knows whether it is really the opinion of the editor or the dictation of the stockholders.

Girl Gives Bond Not to Marry.

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 26.—When Miss Margaret Perkins went to work as telephone operator in a local hotel today the management required her to give a bond not to marry within six months. His instrument, duly signed and sealed, holds Miss Perkins' bondsmen liable to the extent of $500 in the event she becomes a bride on or before June 21, 1911. The sureties are prominent business men.
The reason for this unusual requirement by the hotel management is that a half dozen telephone operators have married within as many months, the last two being Miss Florence Joyce, who recently married a rancher, and Miss Olive Bourne, who has gone to Rockland, Mich., to join her intended husband.

"I am not engaged to marry any one, nor do I expect to enter into an engagement during the coming six months," said Miss Perkins, a comely brunette, "and for that reason my bondsmen have nothing to fear. Of course, I have received a proposal or two, but I am not ready to settle down for life.

"The making of a bond is a matter of business with the management of the hotel," the operator continued.
"There is more or less trouble every time a new operator is 'broken' in, the rule being that as soon as a girl becomes efficient she deserts the switchboard to join heart and hand with some mere man.

"As I said, I am not ready to become the wife of any man, therefore the management has nothing to fear so far as I am concerned. The two young women working on the other eight hour shifts will also be required to give bonds, I am informed."

A. G. Benson, manager of the house, believes that Miss Perkins and the other operators will carry out their agreement to the letter.

SENSATION FALLS FLAT

REMAINS DISCOVERED IN COAL
CAR AT CEMENT PLANT
CAUSES FLURRY.

AN INVESTIGATION MADE

Proves Remains to be Those of Some Animal, Probably a Sheep.

About 3 o'clock this afternoon, while unloading a car of coal at the cement plant, a discovery was made that at first promised a sensation.

About two feet below the surface was found a pair of lungs and part of a large intestine that was thought were those of a human being.

Sheriff Smith, Constable Adair, and Dr. Faust were phoned for and after an examination Dr. Faust gave it as his opinion that the remains are not those of a human being.

Later Justice Brown, and Dr. Hartman made a trip to the scene and they corroborate Dr. Faust's statement that it is nothing more than the remains of some animal, probably a sheep, as grain and grass was found in the intestine.

Thus a promised sensation fell very flat and there will be no story of a horrible murder or accident. The car was loaded at Haileyville, Dec. 24.

FAVORS OFFICES OF DIST. ATTY END TAX ASSESSOR

Hon. W. F. Semple, representative from Bryan county is in town today on a little business. We met him at Jno. Crawford's office this afternoon and found that both of these legislators had in mind the introduction of bills in the next legislature to provide for the creation of the office of district attorney. Both of them are enthusiastically in favor creating the office of county tax assessor and of eliminating a lot of little township offices such as we have under the present system inherited from territorial days.

Mr. Semple has a good record behind him for service in the house, and when these measures come to a vote we predict that he and John Crawford will be there with the goods.

Pensioning Run Mad.

The cost of wars is but feebly shown by the count of the dead and wounded and the vast sums of money expended for munitions, transport and keep of armies in the field after the fight is over. The end of the actual struggle is the beginning of financial recuperative effort of the most exhaustive nature. This is illustrated by the fact that more than forty years after the ending of the Civil war we are still making heavy payments of interest on an outstanding remainder of the war debt, and that we are still making heavy payments on account of pensions. Last year the pension item was $162,000,000.

It is now proposed to pass a pensions act which would increase expenditure about $40,000,000. No proof of disability is to be longer required.

Every honorably discharged soldier who served not less than ninety days in the Civil war or sixty days in the Mexican war would be entitled to a pension on reaching the age of 62, and the rates are graded at $15, $20, $25 and $36 a month, according to age, not rank, as against old rates of $12, $15 and $20.

No proof of service in the field would be needed. To have been available for service is accounted service enough. The soldier who did not get near enough to look on is to be put upon a par with participants in actual fighting.

It would be a great relief to members of congress, no doubt, to get rid of further solicitation on the part of would-be pensioners if they could at one plunge sweep all possible claimants on to the payroll; but it would be a frightful drain on the treasury.—Philadelphia Record

SHOOTS AT NIGHT RAIDERS

While on his way home last night about 11:30 o'clock C. W. Chisler had his attention called to a noise at his father's barn on West 7th street. Upon investigation he found two men had just then prized open the door evidently for the purpose of theft. He could not in the darkness discern the race colors or previous condition of servitude of the raiders, so he made a dive for his gun and sent a shot in their direction before they had time to accomplish any harm.

The culprits fled in two different directions, about as rapidly as it is possible for mortals to run. Chisler took another shot at one as he tumbled over the fence, but the shot did not hit the mark. There is no clue as to who the invaders were. Chisler says he hopes to make his shooting more effective if he ever has to repeat the episode.

LOS ANGELES AGAIN SHAKEN BY DYNAMITE

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 26.—The Llewellyn Iron Works were partially wrecked by an explosion, presumably of dynamite, early yesterday morning. The force of the explosion tore out the front of the building, smashed windows for more than a block distant and awakened people in residence districts more than two miles away. The night watchman was slightly injured. The police have no clue to the perpetrators.

Who placed the supposed charge of dynamite is unknown, but it is believed to be the outcome of the general labor troubles in Los Angeles in which the Llewellyn company has been prominently involved. A hole in the ground eighteen inches deep and about six feet in diameter bears witness to the place of origin and probable cause of the damage.

The front of the main building, a three story frame, for a distance of probably 75 feet, was shot to pieces and its contents of furniture and paraphernalia are piled together in a mass of ruin. The big machinery of the building is apparently undamaged.

"TAKING STOCK" MEETING.

The Closing Mid-Week Series of 1910.

As the embers of 1910 are dying the Christian church will observe a specially fitting program. Its nature will be reminiscent and stock taking. Being the last mid-week service of the year, it is designed to make Wednesday evening's service especially helpful. The program follows:

What of Our Endeavor Society for 1910?—R. Williams.

The Ladies Aid and Its Work.—Mrs. W. H. Ebey.

What of Our C. W. B. M. Work?—Mrs. I. Wymore.

Has the Spirituality of the Church Developed Any?—Mrs. E. E. Matthews.

Has the Men's Organization Been Worth While?—E. E. Matthews.

Has Our Missionary Conscience Developed Any?—J. Wymore.

A look Back at Our Prayer Meetings.—R. W. Allen.

Our Faithfulness to the House of the Lord.—Mrs. Strange, an old disciple in the Lord.

Round Table—What the year 1910 has brought me.

Our remembered dead, memorial—pastor and people.

Adieu 1910.

Many Prospectors Here.

Ada real estate men report that many prospectors from the North are here now, attracted by the sale of unallotted lands. W. H. Braley says four were in his office today, and others have been coming in frequently for some days past. The Frisco has been advertising these sales extensively and making special rates to the prospectors. Although they may be disappointed in the quality of the lands advertised for sale, they will have the opportunity of seeing some good land owned by private parties which they may buy and settle on. At any rate it is well for them to be here and look over what we have to offer.

Progress of Paving.

This morning the asphalt crew began work on South Broadway in front of the News office and have made a good run. By night they will have completed about two thirds of the block and by tomorrow will be well up North Broadway if they keep pushing ahead on this street.

OKLAHOMA CENSUS FIGURES FOR 1907 AND 1910

Pontotoc County Drops From Sixteenth to Twenty-second Place.

Guthrie, Ok., Dec. 26.—The only comparison there is for Oklahoma in a census way is between the official counts taken in 1907 and 1910. The 1907 count was ordered for the purpose of testing out a complaint made by the opponents of the constitution then about to be submitted to the people for ratification that the constitutional convention had disregarded the number of people in forming their legislative and judicial districts.

Figures made public by the government following the enumeration proved that the convention, while largely guessing on population, was not far wrong, at least not sufficiently to justify nullification of the convention's work.

Oklahoma county, including Oklahoma City, was accredited with the largest gain in people between 1900 and 1907. The county ranked one in the new state. Its phenomenal growth during the three years of Statehood kept it in first place after the 1910 enumeration.

Muskogee County, which was fourth in 1907, went to second, Pittsburg county remaining third and Pottawatomie county, which gained 253 people in the three years went from second to fourth in the total population standing. Lincoln county was the fifth largest in 1907, but the loss of 2,514 people during the three years put it back to eighth. Comanche went from sixth and fifth, Caddo from eighth to sixth, Tulsa from twenty-first to seventh and Garfield remains the ninth in total population, as it was in 1907.

Logan county went from seventh to tenth, Grady went from fifteen to eleventh, Bryan dropped from tenth to twelfth, with Le Flore thirteenth, as it was in 1907. Kiowa, now the fourteenth county, was nineteenth in 1907. Kay dropped from twelfth place to fifteenth, Garvin went from seventeenth to sixteenth and Creek county took a spurt that ran it from twenty-seventh to seventeenth place.

Carter was eleventh but is now eighth, Washington advanced from twenty-first to nineteenth, Sequoyah dropped two places, from eighteenth to twentieth; Greer County, after the most recent operation, out of which grew the new county of Harmon, dropped from fourteenth to twenty-first, Pontotoc from sixteenth to twenty-second and Payne dropped from twentieth to twenty-third.

In point of gains Oklahoma county stands first with 29,374, Muskogee second with 15,267, Tulsa third with 13,302, Pittsburg fourth with 9,973 and Comanche fifth with 9,751. The other counties making large gains were in order as follows: Creek sixth, McCurtain seventh, Grady eighth, Okmulgee ninth, Jackson tenth, Tillman eleventh, Caddo twelfth, Kiowa thirteenth, Seminole fourteenth, Washington fifteenth, Osage sixteenth, Custer seventeenth, Garfield eighteenth, Choctaw nineteenth, Seminole twentieth, Okfuskee twenty-first and Hughes twenty-second.

The counties losing since 1907 and the number, according to the last census, were as follows: Cimarron 1,374, Johnston 1,938, Love 868, Marshall 1,525, Texas 2,199, Carter, 1,044, Lincoln 2,514, Roger Mills 378.

Dividing the state by a line east and west through the center, placing Oklahoma county and Oklahoma City and Muskogee county and Muskogee city in the north half, the counties above the line gained in population 192,091 and lost 6,456, or a net gain of 137,626. In counties in the southern half, none of which made more than what might be regarded as normal gains, there was an increase of 112,470 and a loss of 5,375, or a net gain of 107,095, showing that the north half of the state gained over the south half 30,531 people, or about what is accounted for in the abnormal growth of Muskogee, Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

Divided by the old line between the territories, the east half of the state, which includes Osage county, gained 148,834 and lost 6,419 people, making a net gain of 142,415. The west side, which is of less area in numbers of counties gained 101,059 and lost 6,465, making a net gain of 94,594 people, or a gain of 47,821 in favor of old Indian Territory.

Of the ten largest county gains the east side gets second, third, fourth, sixth and seventh places and the west side first, fifth, eighth, ninth and tenth. While the Indian Territory shows five counties that lost in population the west side shows but four, yet those four lost 46 more people than did the Indian Territory counties. On the east side the individual county gains were more nearly uniform. The smallest gain of any county in the state was Harper—100.

Greer county shows a loss of 7,175, but when considered with Harmon county, which was created out of the former, the Greer county gain would be 4,153 had the knife not been inserted.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It always itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitter toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. But such troubles fly before Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of burns, Boils, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at Ramsey Drug Co.
